

Apparel Sewer

OnPoint Manufacturing, Inc. - Florence, AL

Who we are:

A growing company seeking individuals to make top quality on demand clothing.

Who you are:

You are experienced in sewing (home or industrial equipment). You are knowledgeable in apparel construction and are able to identify different types of fabric and fibers. Quality is your guideline: you understand the importance of doing it right the first time. Numbers don't scare you: fractions are your friend! You can ask for help and clarification. You aren't afraid to question why something is done a certain way, and should you see an improvement, you aren't afraid to share it. You are willing to learn new techniques and polish your existing skills. You understand the importance of a clean work area and follow safety standards for a factory setting.

We are happy to work with home sewers and help them apply their skills to industrial manufacturing equipment.

Offering a full-time (7am-3:30pm) position.
